

THE LEGEND
1965

Published by the Senior Class of the Southmoreland Senior
High School.

Alverton, Pennsylvania
First Edition

The Senior Class of 1965 dedicates this first edition of The Legend to the memory of Mr. Lyle H. Stoner, Southmoreland's late wood shop teacher.

Mr. Stoner was a man of many fine traits. In the thirty-one years he was a teacher in East Huntingdon and Southmoreland, he made many friends. He was mild mannered and kind to everyone, understanding and patient with his pupils, and generous toward all the personnel of our school.

Although we may never again pass Mr. Stoner in the halls, never see him helping the boys in the shop, and never talk to him about all his many interests and projects, his cheerful personality and endearing spirit shall forever remain in our hearts and minds.

In this book are gathered events of six precious years of our lives: These moments have become a part of the past, but they will remain alive in our memories forever. Long have we waited for the time when we too would wear the coveted cap and gown. Our journey through these years has been one filled not only with worries and hardships, but also fun and happiness. With mixed emotions—sadness because of the things we leave behind and anticipation for the things which are to come— we, the seniors of 1965, humbly present our Legend.

Class Song (Tune: "More")

Now is the time that we must say good-bye
To the dear school we love—Southmoreland Hi;
We will remember all the joys and tears,
That we have shared throughout our high school years.

The prom and the class-day fun,
The games, and the victories won,
These years—we won't soon forget
As we leave with deep regret.

But now we must say farewell to all of you
Teachers, friends, and all our classmates too.
T'will soon be Commencement Day
And we must all sadly say, Farewell—Farewell to you—to you.

ACTIVITIES

SOUTHMORELAND

Joe Pepe, the editor-in-chief seems to be checking some assignments with Janet Cunningham and Evelyn Cook as Bill Costelnock, Carole Pletcher and Barbara Sullivan look on.

The 1965 Legend

In addition to many other new items this year, we also have a new year book, "The Legend". This name was chosen by the yearbook staff and approved by the school board.

The staff met in September and chose the cover for the 1965 edition. This year's cover features our mascot, the Scottie, in gold and black.

Soon after the cover was chosen, deadlines were set up for each section. After considerable planning and much work, the yearbook began to take form.

The entire yearbook was financed solely by ads, yearbook sales, football programs, and dances sponsored by the Senior Class.

In conclusion, we would like to say that our deepest appreciation goes to Miss Virginia Pfoutz, our yearbook advisor, for helping us to produce this yearbook.

Barbara Donley, Judy Thomas, Mary Pruc, Beverly Skrownek, and Barbara Gardner outline plans for the campaign of yearbook sales.

Carol Pletcher, Becky Wagner, Joe Pepe, Sandy Hovanec, Larry Sikon, Evelyn Cook and Janet Cunningham really prove that the editors do work to get out the paper.

The Tartan

Throughout the first year of our jointure, the student body was informed of the latest happenings by our school paper, The Tartan.

The Journalism II club, under the careful supervision of Mr. Donald Bischoff, met two days a week and discussed, planned and wrote the material for the paper. The editors and typists, sacrificing much-needed study periods, toiled to arrange the paper for the printer.

Our sincere appreciation goes to Mr. Bischoff and staff for a job well done.

Our instrumental music department, under the direction of Mr. Fred Eberharter, has successfully completed a year of good concert and band music.

This year Paul Barkell represented Southmoreland at District Band; with Mary Sue Hyatt, Janice Merritt, Dave Fisher, Pamela Johns, Debbie Kauffman, John Pletcher, and Ronald Beranek participating in County Band.

The newly organized stage band has been very successful. This group plays for class plays and school assemblies.

Through the efforts of Mr. Eberharter and his talented students our band has presented us with enjoyable music.

Although our basketball team won no honors, we feel that the boys did quite well in competition against the much bigger schools in Section II.

The team compiled a 5-9 slate in sectional play and ended in fifth place. The overall record was 9-13.
